January 21, 2016

An act to amend Section 51.6 of the Civil Code, relating to civil rights.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 899, as amended, Hueso. Gender discrimination.

Existing law prohibits a business establishment from discriminating against a person because of the person's gender with respect to the price charged for services of similar or like kind. ~~Existing law also requires specified business establishments to disclose in writing the pricing for each standard service, as defined, to display, in a specified manner, a sign stating that it is illegal to base pricing on gender and that a complete price list is available upon request, and to display, in a specified manner, a price list, and to provide the customer with a copy of the complete price list upon request.~~

This bill would also prohibit this discrimination with respect to the price charged for goods. ~~The bill would add retailers and grocery stores to the list of specified business establishments that are required to disclose their prices in writing. The bill would make a corresponding change to the sign these establishments must display.~~
